

innovative adj. creative or inventive; like the genius who carved the first wheel out of stone word pairs: design, idea, technology

Of course, the first commercial lightbulb was an innovative and modern idea.

After years of gruelling work, the device was finally complete.

gruelling adj. difficult or draining; like the effort of carrying a huge bear word pairs: work, climb, schedule

Benjamin Franklin made important discoveries involving a lightning storm electrifying a key.

electrifying adj. thrilling or stunning; like an exciting storm full of lightning and thunder word pairs: storm, story, performance