

The Qur'an – Islam

This week we are going to be learning about the Islamic special book. The Qur'an is a special book for Muslims. The Qur'an is written in Arabic and is read from right to left. Muslims believe that the Prophet Muhammad wrote down Allah's exact words which is why they treat it so well. Like the Torah, only certain people can touch it. It must never touch the floor which is why it sits on a wooden stand.

We are going to read one of the stories in the Qur'an. The Crying Camel. Once you have finished listening to the story answer these questions.

1. What was your favourite part of the story?

2. Do you think the camel owner will change?

3. What does this story teach us?
