

English

Thursday 4th February

Look at the ideas you put into your table yesterday.

Can you identify the nouns - remember these are naming words and if it is the name of a person or place it must have a capital letter. Check you have used a capital letter for the names of places!

Have you used adjectives to help describe what the place is like and what you might see?

Remember to describe the colour and size of things and try not to use words like big or small because we know you know much better words like towering, enormous, tiny and petite!

Can you add any adjectives?

Now you are ready to write your own story.

But....

Now you are ready to write your own story.

But....

Who will take Katie to the different places and show her around?

In Corby there is a statue!

This is the Steelmen Memorial Statue, have you seen it?

The Steelman also appears on Corby Town Football Club logo!

Could the Steelman be just who we need to take Katie on a Corby adventure?

Or do you know of anything else?

Now you are ready!!

Remember to decide which order
Katie will visit the places you would like her to visit.

Use:

The Steelman came alive and....

First Katie.....

Next the Steelman took her to ....

Finally .....

Remember

C

.

Capital letters

At the beginning of sentences and for names.

Now read your sentences and check that they make sense and that they have a

Please share your writing with us.