

Extend a Sentence

I know what a subordinate clause is.

1. Look at the sentences below. Rewrite the sentences using a subordinate clause either at the beginning or the end to make them more interesting.

Example: The dog barked. The dog barked because he was hungry.

a) The chickens clucked.

b) Trains chugged by.

c) You can eat the chocolate.

d) Do not make lots of noise.

e) Brush your teeth.

2. An embedded clause is a type of subordinate clause. An embedded clause is dropped into a sentence to add extra information. Rewrite the sentences adding embedded clauses to make these sentences more interesting.

Example: The dog, who was hungry, barked.

a) The chickens clucked.

b) The trains chugged by.

c) Eating cake can cheer people up.

d) The librarian asked for quiet.

e) Brushing teeth can keep them healthy.
