

drab adj. dull or grey; like a dark, gloomy day word pairs: day, uniform, existence

On a dark, drab evening, I like to relax in front of the TV.

dreary adj. boring or miserable; like a dull job doing the same thing over and over again word pairs: work, winter, afternoon

The dreary weather outside made me want to curl up with a good book.

bleak adj. gloomy or depressing; like a miserable day when your doughnuts are finished word pairs: day, future, reality

Outside, the night was bleak and spooky.