

Task 1:

Identify the determiners in each of the sentences below. Underline each determiner you find.

1. Those earrings are beautiful!
2. "Whose bone is that?" he thought.
3. Our house was built in the 1900s.
4. Many people have pets.
5. The boy replied, "That book on the shelf.
6. There were a few biscuits left in the tin.
7. The dog sat in a garden waiting for the postman to arrive.
8. A cat slowly walked along the fence.
9. 'Get out of my garden!' thought the dog.
10. Another cat appeared on the fence. The dog barked at the two cats to scare them away.

Task 2:

Complete the sentences below by adding an appropriate determiner.

1. _____ book do you want to read first?
2. In Spain, _____ towns celebrate the festival of San Jose in March.
3. _____ new classroom didn't have enough chairs.
4. After sharing with her friends, Kacie only had a _____ sweets left.
5. "_____ dad is really funny," said Jake to his friend Raj.
6. "_____ dog is called Hugo," said Ken and Charlie.
7. "Take _____ tickets and hand them in at the entrance," said the man at the ticket box.

Task 3:

Write a sentence containing each of the determiners below:

Our, An, Many